Artists' Services Programs & Workshops

The Artists' Services Program is a FREE program developed by Maude Kerns Art Center. Our goal is to offer artists in Lane County resources, such as free lectures, workshops, and artist critiques for established and emerging artists.

Artist Critiques

Monday, August 7, 7:00pm-8:30pm

Receive constructive feedback from your peers at our Artist Critique. A great time to mix and mingle with other local artists and to share your artwork in a welcome and friendly environment. Please bring work or reproductions that you would like to discuss.

Framing your Artwork

Monday, September 11, 7:00pm-8:30pm

Join us for this informational session where a representative from Beard's Framing will be here to discuss the best options for framing artwork. From photographs to paintings, you will learn about the importance of framing your artwork, how to choose a frame that enhances the art, and how to select a cost effective frame.

Discussion will be followed by a Q&A session.

Exhibits Education Program

Explore, experience, and enjoy the Art Center through our Exhibits Education Program.

From Openings to lectures, we invite you to broaden your horizons and make the most of the Art Center!

Abstract Awakenings

Opening Reception: Friday, June 9, 6:00pm-8:00pm

Exhibition Dates: June 9-July 14

Abstract/non-representational art is back! This exhibit features seven artists from across the U.S. whose work includes wall-hung pieces as well as installations. Participating artists are: D. Ted Harris (WA), photography; Paul Hitopoulos (SC), installations; Merrill Mack (CA), mixed media; Sandi Miot (CA), encaustic on board; James O'Keefe (OR), mixed media; Ivo Perelman (NY), painting; and Edward Young (OR), oil painting.

Film Showing: Basquiat

Wednesday, June 14, 7:00pm-8:30pm

We invite you to view the film, Basquiat, which chronicles the life and career of New York artist, Jean Michel Basquiat (1960-1988). Basquiat lived and worked in the streets of the East Village and received international acclaim for his controversial paintings.

Separate Lives: A Group Show of Four Women

Opening Reception: Friday, July 28, 6:00pm-8:00pm

Exhibition Dates: July 28-September 1

This small group show features work by four artists whose work was found to be outstanding by the 2005-2006 jury members. The women are: Diane Archer (OR), Cecile Cuddihy (OR), Michele Martini (CA), and Catherine Small (CA).

Separate Lives Lecture

Wednesday, August 23, 7:00pm-8:30pm

Join us for this unique artist presentation as Diane Archer (OR), a featured artist in Separate Lives, speaks about her work. Through a presentation of images and informal discussion of her pieces featured in the exhibit, Diane will share where her artwork comes from and where it is going.
