Education Exhibits Programs

Explore, experience, and enjoy the Art Center through our Exhibits Education Programs.

From openings to lectures, we invite you to broaden your horizons and make the most of the Art Center!

Figures from Life

Exhibition Dates: January 13-February 17

Opening Reception: Friday, January 13 6:00pm-8:00pm

This exhibit includes work by 11 artists from all over the country including Jerry Ross, Sylvia Goldberg, and Randy Simmons. The work of Brian Kreydatus and Andrew Meyers are featured in the Salon Gallery. Although all of the work includes figures or portraits, the art varies from representational glimpses of people and their lives to highly stylized scenes and figures.

The Art of the Figure Lecture

Wednesday, January 25 7:00pm-8:30pm

We invite you to spend an evening exploring the art of the figure. Well-known local artist Jerry Ross, who is featured in "Figures from Life," will discuss the process of painting from life and the incorporation of figures in artworks from portraits to figure paintings.

Walsh Timeline 1972-2006:

A Mike E. Walsh Retrospective

Opening Reception: Friday, February 24 6:00pm-8:30pm

Exhibition Dates: February 25-March 30

Over the years, Eugene-based artist Mike Walsh has created a wide variety of assemblage and installation pieces. Themes ranging from AIDS to the interaction of western and Australian aboriginal culture to the replacement of the public library card catalogue with the computer have been explored and dealt with in Walsh's work. This exhibit showcases pieces from 35 years of Walsh's work.

Mike E. Walsh Retrospective Lecture

Wednesday, March 29 7:00pm-8:30pm

Join us and learn more about Mike Walsh's artwork by listening to his own interpretations and explanation of his retrospective exhibit. Having worked for over 35 years, Walsh is sure to have much to share about his work, life as an artist, and future art.

Artists' Services Programs & Workshops

The Artists' Services Program is a FREE program developed by Maude Kerns Art Center. Our goal is to offer artists in Lane County resources, such as free lectures, workshops, and artist critiques for established and emerging artists. Our intention is to provide a supportive environment for artists to establish connections and network.

Grants: How to Get One and What to Know

Monday, February 6 7:00pm-8:30pm Jill Cardinal
Interested in receiving money to create your art? Wondering about grants? Curious about opportunities for artists? Come find out at this very special artists' services lecture. Join us for a presentation and Q&A session with local artist, Jill Cardinal, recipient of a 2005 Lane Arts Council Grant. With her grant funding, Jill created the Center's Dia de los Muertos community altar and offered the "Fly into the Dia Butterfly Workshop" to the public. Listen to Jill's experiences, learn about the grant application process and have the opportunity to ask Jill your questions about grants and grant funding.

Artist Critique

Monday, March 6 7:00pm-8:30pm
Looking for feedback from peers on your artwork? Curious what art is being created in the community? Want to know what others think about your work? Let's talk about it! Receive constructive feedback from your peers at our Artist Critique. This is a great time to mix and mingle with other local artists and share your artwork in a welcome and friendly environment. Please bring work or reproductions that you would like to present.
