- Artist Notification: Friday, March 24, 2023
- Artwork drop-off date: Wednesday, 9am – 11am April 12, 2023, at the Eugene Airport

The Maude Kerns Art Center is extending a call to members of Maude Kerns Art Center to submit artwork for the upcoming “Oregon Imagined” show to be displayed at The Gallery at the Airport in Eugene from April 13 – July 11, 2023. The submission deadline for this show is Monday, March 6, 2023.

This call is open to any current member of the Maude Kerns Art Center. There is no cost to enter. Artists may submit one piece of art for consideration by the juror, artist Ann Bumb Hamilton.

This call is open to all mediums except for video art and installations. Two-dimensional artwork should not exceed 36” in any dimension, regardless of medium. All two-dimensional work must be framed and ready to hang with a hanging wire attached to the back. Three-dimensional works must fit within a 2 ft-wide X 3 ft-tall X 10 in-deep space, should not exceed 50 lbs, and must be delivered by the artist to the airport.

The artist will respond to the theme of an imagined future Oregon. Some questions to ponder: What do you see? What do you want to see? How do you envision Oregon in the future? What do you value about Oregon and wish to retain? Subject matter that is realistic, imagined, or abstract is welcome. Artwork will be selected based on how it fits with the theme of the show, the aesthetic quality of the work, the intention of the work, and skill and proficiency in medium.
